Through its acclaimed jackpot shows, SAILA continues to work towards the advancement of junior exhibitors from all over the world, not only promoting youth education and leadership, but also providing a place in every area of the state where a junior exhibitor can gain valuable experience before exhibiting an animal at a major show. SAILA works diligently to provide both a fun and educational environment for youth livestock exhibitors. In addition, SAILA provides opportunities for prospective college students to find methods and avenues of paying for college, as well as giving college scholarships each year to graduating SAILA members. Through its sanctioned shows and other means, SAILA members and their families have a direct economic impact on communities throughout the state of Arizona. SAILA has been serving junior exhibitors for more than 75 years. The SALIRE Foundation, is a non-profit organization, which supports the SAILA program.
